

VERTICAL INTEGRATION WORKSHOP

QUY PHAM

Title: Falconer type functions and the distance set problem.

Abstract: In this talk, I will introduce the Falconer distance set problem and review the best currently known thresholds. Then I will present a result showing that Falconer's distance conjecture holds for certain classes of Cartesian product sets satisfying additional structural conditions. This proof is based on a projection theoretic approach to study Falconer type functions.

Date: November 12, 2025.

Department of Mathematics, University of Rochester, USA. Email address: `qpham3@ur.rochester.edu`